DAY 3 /

Puma Tracking Tour

This experience is fully focused on tracking pumas in their natural habitat, while also appreciating the extraordinary landscapes and the diverse wildlife that inhabit Patagonia. Accompanied by expert guides, you will explore the trails of Torres del Paine National Park and enjoy a truly unique wildlife encounter: observing pumas in the wild.

You will discover Patagonia's flora and fauna from a different perspective, in a journey that blends conservation, respect, and awe at every step.

Nature unfolds at its own pace. While puma sightings cannot be guaranteed on every outing, the overall experience—walking their territory, learning about their behavior, and immersing yourself in the surroundings—is always unforgettable.

Photography enthusiasts should be sure to bring their cameras.

- Buffet breakfast at Hotel Costa Australis.
- Puma Tracking excursion including entrance fees and box lunch.
- Overnight stay at Hotel Costa Australis.
